

Excellence in Audiology Provider Certification Process

The Excellence in Audiology Provider Certification is a voluntary credential that represents a hearing health care professionals personal and public commitment to the standards of specialty practice and life-long learning.